INTRODUCTION

Garfield County Fair & Rodeo Royalty Program consists of a horsemanship and leadership competition open to Garfield County residents.

1.1 Welcome

Welcome to the Garfield County Royalty Program, we are happy to have you as a potential candidate!

The Garfield Board of County Commissioners, the Fair Board members and all the County staff are proud of the annual Garfield County Fair & Rodeo that began in 1938 in our County. Together we work to continue the strong tradition that it holds in our community as a valuable community event. The Royalty Program is an integral part of the fair and rodeo experience and we are happy you are hoping to join us in the experience!

1.2 Royalty Mission Statement

The Garfield County Fair & Rodeo Royalty program is dedicated to provide an opportunity for young women to be spokespersons for the Garfield County Fair & Rodeo, the sport of rodeo, the western way of life and their community of Garfield County. The Royalty program utilizes teamwork, organizational skills, public speaking, community service, and relationships to prepare participants in becoming future community leaders.

1.3 General Information

The Garfield County Fair Board (“Fair Board”), and its representatives, reserve the right to hold a judged contest to select participants at its discretion in accordance with the Royalty Bylaws and Application. The Fair Board has the ultimate authority over the royalty contest, contestants, crowned royalty and all others involved.

- a. Please read all paperwork thoroughly. You are responsible for knowing and following the Royalty Bylaws.
- b. Handwritten, not typed, signatures and initials are required.
- c. Please keep a copy of the Royalty Bylaws for your own reference.

2 ROYALTY ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- a. To qualify for all royalty positions, you must be 12-20 years of age, and no older than 20 as of January 1st of the reigning year.
- b. Judges, Royalty Committee, and the Royalty Coordinator will decide contestant levels: Queen, Junior Queen, and Princess.

- c. Contestant may not be related to the Royalty Coordinator, Assistant Coordinator(s). Contestants related to Fair Board Members would require that Fair Board member to recuse themselves from Royalty related matters and decisions.
- d. Contestant must be a legal resident of Garfield County for the period of at least one year.
- e. Contestant must reside in Garfield County during their reign.
- f. Contestant must not have a criminal history.
- g. Contestant must be of sound moral character.
- h. Contestants cannot hold additional titles during their reign. Current Garfield County Fair & Rodeo Royalty is allowed to tryout consecutively.
- i. Parents and participants must comply with Garfield County Fair and Rodeo Royalty Program Bylaws for the full year of reign.
- j. Winners are required to attend the Colorado Association of Fairs and Shows (CAFS), royalty clinic in November of their reigning year. The dates and place of clinic are subject to change. Garfield County will pay for the cost of registration and hotel rooms for the royalty members and the Royalty Coordinator. Parents/guardians are welcome to attend and must pay for their registration and hotel rooms.

3 CONTEST RULES and PROCEEDINGS

- a. The application must be completed and turned in to the Garfield County Fair & Events Coordinator at 195 14th Street, Bldg., D, Rifle CO 81650 or by email cevans@garfield-county.com by September 30th.
- b. The Royalty Pre-Contest meeting with contestants and parents will be held October 2, 2020 at Garfield County Fairgrounds. The Royalty Contest will be held October 10, 2020 at the Garfield County Fairgrounds.
- c. If there are not enough applicants, the contest may be postponed until there are two or more applicants. The Royalty Coordinator and the Fair Board reserve the right to appoint qualified applicants to fill available positions.
- d. The new Royalty court will be crowned at the next fair board meeting by the Royalty Coordinator.
- e. The year of reign begins November of the competing year and continues until September 30th, the following year. If a contest has to be postponed due to lack of contestants, the reign will continue from the time of crowning until the following year's contest is completed. The previous royalty will not make appearances after the new royalty begins its reign.
- f. Equipment and saddle drapes purchased by the Fair Board are to be returned to the Royalty Coordinator at the end of their reign, no later than October 1st. If these items are missing or damaged, the original cost of the item will be charged to the person legally responsible.

- g. If not participating in the present contest, current royalty is expected to assist with tryouts.
- h. Contestants will be judged and scored in the following categories:
 - a. Application
 - b. Appearance
 - c. Personal interview
 - d. Current events
 - e. Horsemanship knowledge and riding ability
 - f. Written Test
 - g. Speech Presentation
 - h. History of the Garfield County Fair & Rodeo
- i. Contestants must be able to ride and have access to a suitable horse for the contest, rodeos, and all other approved events. Suitability will be determined at the contest and is left to the discretion of the Royalty Coordinator, Assistant Coordinator(s) and Royalty Committee throughout the year.
- j. All contestants, parents/guardians and royalty are expected to comply with these bylaws, be friendly, courteous and respectful at all times. If there is any questionable behavior the Royalty Coordinator will report it to the Fair Board. The first offense will be documented by the Royalty Coordinator with a verbal warning. The second offense will be documented by the Royalty Coordinator with a written warning. The third offense will be documented by the Royalty Coordinator in writing and will require an appearance before the Fair Board. The Fair Board will decide penalties and/or dismissal from royalty and scholarship eligibility.
- k. Contestants and parents/guardians must submit all questions and/or concerns in writing to the Royalty Coordinator. If questions and/or concerns are not answered satisfactorily, then contestants and parents/guardians may submit the same questions and/or concerns in writing to the Fair Board.
- l. Contestants must know the basic rules and history of the Garfield County Fair & Rodeo events. Contestants should be familiar with and be able to explain these topics and aspects to anyone attending the Garfield County Fair & Rodeo.
- m. During the contest, if a contestant is in need of assistance, she may ask permission from the judges to obtain parental/guardian help. If permission is granted, a parent or guardian may assist. Otherwise, the parents and/or guardians are to remain in the stands as spectators.
- n. Parents and/or guardians of contestants are responsible for arrangements of horse and participant transportation to all events. Contestants must be on time and fully prepared to participate in the contest.
- o. Abuse to horses or people is not tolerated. Any hitting or jerking on a horse during the contest will result in elimination from the contest. Inappropriate verbal abuse to anyone during the contest will also result in elimination from the contest.
- p. If there is evidence that royalty, contestants or their parents and/or guardians do not follow these bylaws as set by the Fair Board and the Garfield Board of County Commissioners, titles may be revoked by the Fair Board at any time. If this occurs, all Garfield County royalty items issued must be promptly returned. These items include chaps, crowns, sashes, saddle blankets, and leg warmers. The royalty participant will not be eligible to be a contestant in future Garfield County Fair and Rodeo royalty contests.

- q. A tentative schedule of royalty appearances is on page 17 of this packet. The times and locations are subject to change.

4 ROYALTY RESPONSIBILITIES

Royalty members act as official Garfield County Fair & Rodeo spokespersons and also represent the sport of rodeo and all other Garfield County Fair events. Because they attract much publicity, they are easily recognized on a daily basis. Therefore, royalty and parents/guardians must always be respectful, organized, helpful and friendly. As changes in plans and events occur, sometimes with short notice, each person is expected to handle situations in a courteous manner. The following duties are examples and may not include all that may happen throughout the year.

Garfield County Fair & Rodeo
Release and Waiver of Liability & Assumption of Risk Agreement

Covered Events:

Garfield County Fair & Royalty Contest and all future Royalty Events

In consideration for being permitted to participate in these Royalty Events, I, for myself or on behalf of the participant, as the participant's parent or legal guardian, acknowledge and voluntarily agree to the following:

I understand the potential risks of participation in these events and that I am releasing the event holders and sponsors from any liability related thereto. Working with live animals is inherently unpredictable and potentially dangerous. Reactions to strange sounds, surroundings, different handlers, and sudden movements cannot always be anticipated nor controlled. The handling of animals by other participants cannot always be anticipated nor controlled by the event holders or sponsors. Thus, there are always inherent risks to participation.

Assumption of Risk: I fully understand that participation in these events may not only involve risk of serious injury or death, economic loss, property damage, or loss that may result from the participant's own actions, inactions, or negligence, but also from the actions, inactions, or negligence of others, the condition of the facilities, equipment or areas where the Royalty Event is being conducted, and the participant voluntarily agrees to assume this risk.

Covenant Not to Sue: The participant's personal and legal representatives, heirs, successors, and next of kin will not make any claim against Board of County Commissioners of Garfield County, Colorado, or any of its present or former officials, employees, agents, attorneys, insurers, and representatives and their respective successors, heirs and assigns or any volunteer(s) ("herein collectively referred to as Garfield County"), for injury, damage, death, or any other loss arising from or related to participation in these events.

Release: The participant's personal and legal representatives, heirs, successors, and next of kin, forever release, waive, discharge and relinquish Garfield County from any and all actions, causes of action, claims, charges, demands, losses, damages, costs, attorney's fees, judgments, liens, indebtedness, and liabilities of every kind and character, whether known or unknown, including foreseen or unforeseen bodily injury and personal injuries and property damage that may be sustained by the participant in any way connected to, related to, or arising out of participation in these events, regardless of any negligence of Garfield County. Garfield County may be protected by the Colorado Governmental Immunity Act, C.R.S. § 24-10-101, et. seq.

Good Health: The participant is in good health and has no physical condition that would prevent him/her from participating in these events or that would increase the risk of serious injury or death in the event of an accident. I have had the opportunity to seek medical advice for any concerns I may have had regarding the participant's health.

Statutory Limitations on Liability: I understand that under Colorado Law, equine professionals or equine activity sponsors are not liable for injury due to death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risk of equine activities, pursuant to C.R.S. § 13-21-119.

I have carefully read this Agreement and fully understand its contents. I am aware that I have given up substantial rights of the participant by signing the Agreement, and I am signing the Agreement voluntarily.

There is no obligation to participate in these events but I desire to do so or to allow such participation. I certify that I am at least eighteen years of age and the participant or his/her parent/legal guardian.
